Program Outcome

Outcomes are as follows-

- Improved Leadership and Teamwork Abilities: Leading and working within organizing committees honed their leadership qualities, delegation skills, and ability to collaborate effectively with team members.
- Enhanced Communication and Interpersonal Skills: Interacting with participants, faculty, and college administration improved their communication, negotiation, and interpersonal skills.
- Financial Management and Budgeting Skills: Handling event expenses and managing budgets (as indicated by the bill submission) provided practical experience in financial planning and accountability.
- Problem-Solving and Decision-Making Skills: Coordinators would have faced and resolved various unforeseen challenges during the planning and execution of the event, sharpening their problem-solving and decision-making abilities.
- Marketing and Promotion Experience: Publicizing the event to attract participants from other colleges likely involved marketing and promotional efforts, providing them with relevant experience.
- Event Management Skills: Gaining hands-on experience in all stages of event management, from conceptualization to execution and post-event activities.
- Networking and Professional Connections: Coordinators built a strong network within their own college and with faculty and students from participating colleges. They might have also interacted with industry professionals if they were involved.
- Increased Confidence and Sense of Achievement: Successfully organizing and executing a significant event like Elecspire 2k25 would have significantly boosted their confidence and provided a strong sense of accomplishment.
