ONOS & Springer Nature: Open Access Publishing and APC Funding – A Practical Guide for Authors

📅 Wed, Jul 29, 2026 3:00 PM - 4:30 PM IST

Show in my time zone

One Nation One Subscription (ONOS) initiative has transformed access to global research by enabling institutions across India to explore content from over 13,000 journals, including Springer Nature's extensive portfolio.

Building on this access, ONOS also supports Open Access publishing by covering Article Processing Charges (APCs) for authors publishing in eligible fully open access journals, creating new opportunities to enhance research visibility and impact.

This webinar by Springer Nature is designed to help researchers and institutions who are part of ONOS, to understand how to fully leverage both access and publishing benefits under ONOS, with a strong focus on the post-acceptance APC funding workflow.

Participants will gain practical guidance on how to navigate the process, meet eligibility requirements, and successfully avail APC support for Open Access publishing.

Key Learning Points -

ONOS recap: Access, scale, and Springer Nature coverage

Open Access under ONOS: Eligible journals and APC funding scope

Author eligibility: Key requirements for availing APC support

Post-acceptance workflow: Step-by-step process to secure APC funding

Avoiding common errors: Ensuring a smooth approval process
